

Sing praises to God

Sing praises to God, Creator of this world,
whose power is never ending
and whose works are without end;
God, who gave us life, to learn and understand.
He surrounds us with His presence and He holds us in His hand.

Refrain:

God is here, God is here. He is close to us, so near!
For His great goodness lets us live, and He gives His
grace to forgive,
God is here, God is here. He who gave the world for us,
will always be the same to trust. God is here.

God gives us His word, and shows His love to us, for when we grasp hold of Jesus we see the love of God,
how He heals the sick and loves the sinners too,
of His love for every person, and who gave His life for you.

Refrain:

God is here, God is here. He is close to us, so near!
For His great goodness lets us live, and He gives His
grace to forgive,
God is here, God is here. He who gave the world for us,
will always be the same to trust. God is here.

Things will always change, and not remain the same.
When we turn to seek out Jesus
and we live our life in Christ,
then the world will shine a light so new for us.
The way to heaven will be shown,
for that is God's wish for us.

Refrain:

I am here, I am here I am close to you, so near!
For my great goodness lets you live, and I give my grace
to forgive.
I am here, I am here. I, who gave the world to you, will always be there for you too. I am here.

Sing praises to God

original title: Singt ein Lied von Gott

translation: Ron Hume

text & melody: Peter Strauch

© 1999 SCM Hänssler, 71087 Holzgerlingen