

Information concerning the International Church Convention of the New Apostolic Church (ICC)

When does the ICC take place? – From Friday, June 6 until Pentecost Sunday, June 8, 2014

Where does the ICC take place? – In the Olympic Park in Munich.

What is the ICC motto? „For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you“ (Luke 17, 21).

Who organizes the ICC? – The New Apostolic Church International. Host District Church is Southern Germany.

For whom is the ICC? – For young and old, New Apostolic Christians and guests. There will be offers for children, youth, younger and older adults, senior members. Families, couples, singles – everybody is welcome.

How many participants can come? – The planning group reckons with up to 60,000 participants from all of Germany, from Europe and also overseas.

What is planned? – A versatile program, encounters, music, lectures, presentations, workshops, exhibitions, meetings forums, community actions etc.

When will the ICC be opened? – The ceremony for the ICC-opening will take place on Friday, June 6, 2014 at 6 p.m. in the Olympic Stadium.

What is the climax of the ICC? – The divine service on Pentecost Sunday, June 8, 2014, held by the international Church leader, Chief Apostle Jean-Luc Schneider.

Who exhibits? – Each New Apostolic District Church from Europe presents itself with a stand and also represents their District Churches in trust from abroad. In addition, the District Churches Australia, Cape (South Africa), Canada/USA (as a joint venture) as well as Southeast Asia will have a presentation stand. Different institutions and groups, such as for example the relief organization „Missionswerk“ and „NAK-karitativ“ will also exhibit.

When is it possible to apply? – As of September 2, 2013 to January 31, 2014 the application is possible via a person responsible in every church congregation. As of February 1, 2014, the tickets can be booked online or by phone. In addition, there is a box-office at the venue on Friday, June 6, and Saturday, June 7, 2014.

How is the accommodation of the participants planned? – The participants shall organize their accommodation themselves. There will be an office which finds hotel accommodation to be booked by everyone himself as well as joint accommodation (halls, schools).

Where can one register as a helper? – There is a Help portal with the address:
www.eventorg-nak-sued.de